

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE: Thursday, April 6, 2017

Kentville Recognizes Extraordinary Community Volunteers

KENTVILLE, NOVA SCOTIA – The Town of Kentville will recognize and celebrate 19 volunteers and volunteer groups with a brunch and awards ceremony on Saturday April 8th from 10:00 to 12:00pm at the Kentville Recreation Centre.

Every year, the Town of Kentville celebrates local volunteers who go above and beyond to help others. This year, 19 people and groups will be recognized for their work with 7 groups in Kentville:

- Dave Reynolds, Glooscap Curling Club
- Jake Balsor, Glooscap Curling Club
- John Calpin, Glooscap Curling Club
- Alison Seamone, Glooscap Curling Club
- Leslie Seamone, Glooscap Curling Club
- Jill Alcoe-Holland, Glooscap Curling Club
- Rick and Linda Ramsay, Glooscap Curling Club
- Kathy Siddall, Glooscap Curling Club
- Brenda MacDonald, Kentville Pickleball Coordinator
- Kate Collins, Friends of the Kentville Library
- Sarah Leslie, Friends of the Kentville Library
- Theresa Redden, Evergreen Home
- Doug Greene, Open Arms
- Margaret Taggart, Open Arms
- Jennifer Young, Open Arms
- Shawn Biggs, Open Arms
- Cynthia M. Keating-Biggs, Open Arms
- The late Johnny Gibson, Open Arms

In addition, a special award will be given to Gertrude Morse of Fidelis House for her volunteer work. Gertrude is also Kentville's Provincial Volunteer of the Year for 2016.

Please join volunteers, friends, families and colleagues of the recipients for a light brunch at the Kentville Recreation Centre on Saturday April 8th, 2017. Musician John Tetrault will provide entertainment during the event, which is sponsored by the Kings Arms Pub.

For more information, please contact:

Jennifer West, Town of Kentville, 902-679-2503, jwest@kentville.ca